CHARLES GREY
Centrally located in the Piedmont region of North Carolina is Charles Grey. A new company with familiar faces, each team member averages over twenty five years of experience in the millwork industry. Knowledge, combined with experience, powers Charles Grey to understand what our LBM partners need and more importantly, when they need it. Our strategic location offers the ability of next day delivery for most customers, and some options will even offer same-day delivery services.

Charles Grey exists to provide our customers quality materials with exceptional service, unparalleled in the building materials industry. We are committed to service our industry as the leading wholesale distributor of mouldings, boards, and stair systems. Charles Grey knows the value of our customers and remains focused on keeping our customers and dealers competitive and in a fully stocked position.
